

New Mexico Council for the Social Studies

Presents

An Educational Partnership Symposium

Saturday, March 3

The National Museum of Nuclear Science & History in Albuquerque

8:00-8:30 Registration/Continental Breakfast

Morning Break Out Sessions:

High School: Decision to Drop

Middle School: Trash Bag Espionage

Elementary School: STEM Demonstration

Special Guest Speaker: Eva Mozes Kor

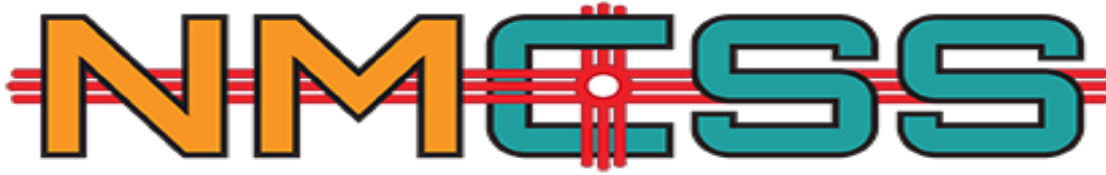

Eva is a survivor of the Holocaust who, with her twin sister Miriam, was subjected to human experimentation under Josef Mengele at Auschwitz. She is the author of Surviving the Angel of Death. Eva founded CANDLES Holocaust Museum and Education Center in 1995. Eva will be available for a book signing after her presentation.

Lunch will be on your own. Local food trucks will be on site.

Museum tours will be available after lunch.

Seats are limited to this special event, so register early!

New Mexico Council for the Social Studies

Educational Partnership Symposium

Fees include continental breakfast, grade level activity, special guest presentation, museum tour, and a certificate of attendance. Lunch is NOT included. Food trucks will be on site.

Early Registration in January

Individual: $20 Pre-service teacher: $15

Registration in February

Individual: $25 Pre-service teacher: $20

Registration in March

Individual: $30 Pre-service teacher: $25

Space is limited! Register early to reserve your spot!

Please print clearly

Name _____

School/Institution _____

Work Address _____ City _____ Zip _____

Home Address _____ City _____ Zip _____

Work Phone _____ Home/Cell Phone: _____

E-mail _____

Teaching Experience: ___ Pre-service ___ Five Years or Less ___ Over Five Years

Grade Level Taught: ___ Elementary ___ Middle School ___ High School

Circle registration fee:

Individual Registration $20 (Jan) $25(Feb) $30(March)

Pre-service Registration $15(Jan) $20(Feb) $25(March)

For questions about registration or the symposium email Julie Ornelas at ornelas@aps.edu.

Checks/purchase orders/money orders can be made payable to NMCSS. Mail registration forms and payment to: Stacy Moses

838 Fairway Rd NW
Albuquerque, NM 87107

Registration can also be done through our website: www.nmcss.org